Report on Bharat Scout and Guide Foundation Day Celebration

Date- 17-11-2025

Introduction

Bharat Scout and Guide Foundation Day is celebrated to mark the establishment of the Scout and Guide movement in India and to spread its noble ideals among students. The day reminds us of the importance of discipline, leadership, unity, and selfless service in shaping responsible citizens. With this objective, the Foundation Day was celebrated on 17-11-2025 at Shree Shantaveer Arts and Commerce College, Babaleshwar, organized by IQAC, NSS, and YRC. The programme aimed to inspire students to follow the principles of honesty, teamwork, and patriotism as taught by the Scout and Guide movement.

Importance of Bharat Scout and Guide Foundation Day

The celebration of Foundation Day holds great importance as it encourages students to develop moral values, social responsibility, and leadership qualities. The Scout and Guide movement plays a vital role in building character, promoting national integration, and preparing youth to face challenges with confidence and courage. It also motivates students to participate in community service and contribute positively to society and nation-building. Through such programmes, students learn the value of discipline, cooperation, and service to humanity .

Conclusion.

The celebration of Bharat Scout and Guide Foundation Day at Shree Shantavee

Arts and Commerce College, Babaleshwar was meaningful and successful. The inspiring guidance of Prof. H. S. Kuchanur and Dr. G. P. Sale, IQAC Coordinator, motivated students to actively involve themselves in social service and uphold the true spirit of the Scout and Guide movement. The programme strengthened the sense of unity, responsibility, and patriotism among students and concluded with a vote of thanks.
