Report on Indian Constitution Day Celebration 26-11-25

Introduction

Indian Constitution Day was celebrated on 26/11/2025 at Shree Shantaveer Arts and Commerce College, Babaleshwar. The programme was organized by IQAC, NSS, and YRC to mark the adoption of the Constitution of India and to create awareness among students about constitutional values, fundamental rights, and duties. The celebration aimed to promote respect for the Constitution and strengthen democratic principles among the youth.

Programme Details

The programme was presided over by Dr. N. P. Biradar. The event was graced by Mr. Suresh Goudappagol, Department of Sociology, as the Chief Guest.

The Chief Guest explained the significance of the Indian Constitution, highlighting fundamental rights, duties, justice, equality, and liberty. He encouraged students to understand their role as responsible citizens and to uphold constitutional values in their daily lives.

In his presidential address, Dr. N. P. Biradar emphasized the importance of constitutional awareness among students and motivated them to actively participate in nation-building activities.

Students participated enthusiastically in the programme and gained valuable knowledge about the Constitution.

Conclusion

The celebration of Indian Constitution Day on 26/11/2025 was meaningful and successful. The guidance and speeches of Dr. N. P. Biradar and Mr. Suresh Goudappagol inspired students to respect and follow the principles of the Constitution. The programme concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the organizers, guests, and participants.
