Importance of the Programme:

NSS Day is celebrated to highlight the importance of volunteerism, social responsibility, and community service among students. During the programme, Prof. S. G. Jangamashetti emphasized the role of NSS in developing leadership qualities, teamwork, and a sense of civic duty. Dr. V. R. Choudari highlighted the achievements of the NSS unit and encouraged students to participate in initiatives that contribute to society's welfare. The event motivated students to take active part in social, environmental, and educational activities.

Conclusion:

The NSS Day celebration was conducted successfully with active participation from students, faculty members, and staff. The programme enhanced awareness about the significance of NSS and inspired students to adopt social service as an integral part of their education. The event concluded on an encouraging and positive note, promoting a spirit of service, responsibility, and community engagement.
