Celebration of Clean India Movement: A Brief Report

NSS Units of I, II and Bharat Scouts and Guides of our college in collaboration with District Administration, Vijayapur, Nehru Yuva Kendra Vijayapur and Pattan Panchayat Babaleshwar celebrated Clean India Movement on 22nd October 2021 with great enthusiasm on the eve of Azadi Ka Amrut Mahotsav-2021.

The programme was started with the introductory speech by NSS officer Dr.V.R.Patil who stressed the need of inculcating the habits of cleanliness and personal hygiene for maintaining good health. He also elaborated world's best clean cities, India's clean cities, villages and Karnataka State's clean city Mysore.

The function was presided over by principal Dr.V.R.Choudhari and he spoke the importance of cleanliness of our surroundings. He appealed students that we should aim to bring our town in the list of world's best cities.

Dr. G.P. Sale, who is incharge of Bharat Scouts and Guides welcomed the function and NSS Officer Dr. M.C.Nigashetty compared the programme.

Later on students along with principal and faculty went to Jathia with slogans collectiong plastics, waste material in the card board box and submitted to C.O of Pattan Panchayat Shri Tahasildar sir and civic workers. The members of Pattan Panchayat, Staff and Civic workers of Babaleshwar appreciated the efforts of principal, faculty and students for undertaking such a meaningful programme on the eve of Azadi Ka Amrut Mahotsav-2021.
